PATH TO SALVATION

INTRODUCTION

THE GOSPEL, which means GOOD NEWS, is translated as The Truth Teachings of Jesus or the message of the Life, Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ whilst He was on earth. In actual fact the Gospel started from The Beginning when God Almighty created the earth and man.

That is because, The Same God Who made first-man Adam, on day number six during the creation process, is The Same God that took on Him (His Spirit), a human body over two thousand years ago.

Jesus Christ was, is and will be God forever.

And He said unto me, it is done. I am The Alpha and The Omega, The Beginning, and The End. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of water freely.

He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be My son

Revelation 21: 6-7

PATH TO SALVATION

Here was Jesus Christ in a vision to St. John The Apostle, revealing to the world His true and everlasting identity. Also promising to those that will believe in Him, the reward that awaits them after the end of this age, when He returns to earth. The actual Good News began when God Almighty, same as Jesus Christ, created the earth, fully equipped with everything the man He so dearly loves will ever want or need.

But the evil one, Satan, The Devil, successfully enticed our first parents (Adam and Eve), thereby, causing them to break God Almighty's First Law to mankind. From that time, and as a direct result of the sin of the first human couple, a curse was triggered, of which the effects can be felt even unto this very day and hour.

For all have sinned and come short of The Glory of God:

Being justified by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in His Blood, to declare His Righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God.

Romans 3: 23-25

PATH TO SALVATION

However, The Almighty God being good, kind, merciful, loving and compassionate, did not give up on His sinful children. The Gospel / The Good News continued as initially purposed and predetermined by a Sovereign God in His plan of redemption, specifically designed to make good the error of OUR FIRST ANCESTORS.

That was fully evident from the very moment the first blood of an animal was used by God to temporarily atone for the sins of the First Spirit-Man Adam and his Wife Eve (Genesis 3: 21).

Having thereby predetermined to Personally take full responsibility at a future date by taking on a human body in the form of Jesus Christ for an everlasting remission of all human sins.

Let us search and try our ways and turn again to The Lord.

Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

Lamentations 3: 40-41

CHAPTER 1 WHO OWNS THE WORLD

In the beginning God created the Heaven and the Earth.

And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep.

And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

COMMENTARY

May The Living God of all creation now guide and open our spiritual mind-eyes to have wisdom and understanding as we move through these passages of The Holy Bible. May God Almighty, Who is the sole architect of the entire universe lead us to His purpose and destination for our individual beings as determined since the foundations of the world.

And may the Grace, Mercy and Love of our Lord Jesus Christ, God Almighty incarnated into Human Flesh, be made manifest in all aspects of our lives through His Eternal Gift of Salvation. Amen!

PATH TO SALVATION

CHAPTER 1 WHO OWNS THE WORLD

With direct reference to the above verses, it is fully evident that The Almighty God existed prior to anything we can presently observe around us. To put it in other words, it is also very clear that He was first before anything that was made on this planet, and in the universe. That then comprehensively gives Him absolute claim to ownership of all things visible to the human eye as well as in the Spiritual Realm as detailed in the scriptures.

Here on earth, men who usually arrive with no possessions, often claim a portion of land to make themselves landlords and landowners simply for the fact that they first arrived at that particular location. Which they eventually pass on as an inheritance to their offspring, having never made any contribution towards the creation of those things in any way or form.

Why then do some of these same men sometimes object to the idea that God Almighty, whose origin can neither be determined nor discovered, has every right to full ownership of all things.

We know The Holy Bible is True and We Believe every single word as being an Inspiration from God The Spirit towards His Human Children.

The second verse made mention of The Identity of God as being Spirit from the beginning and not Flesh.

CHAPTER 1 WHO OWNS THE WORLD

The Holy Bible teaches that one characteristic of His Spirit, is Him having the ability to be always present anywhere and everywhere, which in other words, can be referred to as Omnipresent.

A good example is something like The Air we breathe. We can neither see, stop, nor restrict the air from moving around. It penetrates and is existent even in the most confined spaces, making it impossible for anyone to escape its presence and significance.

God Almighty, according to The Holy Bible has always been around. He was around before time began.

He is also a God of All Knowledge, Omniscient, putting Him above any human abilities by far. Many great ancient philosophers have in the past attempted to find the origin of The Almighty God but they all failed because He is beyond our human comprehension. It is simply impossible for anyone to either trace or track the origin of The Almighty God.

The best advice is to believe and accept By Faith The Infallible Word of The Holy Bible, which has throughout several generations proven to be more than reliable and absolutely Truthful.

PATH TO SALVATION

CHAPTER 1 WHO OWNS THE WORLD

In The Beginning was The Word, and The Word was with God, and The Word was God.

The same was in The Beginning with God.

All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made.

In Him was Life; and The Life was The Light of men.

And The Light shineth in The Darkness; and The Darkness comprehend it not.

St. John 1: 1-5

COMMENTARY

Furthermore, The Gospel, in other words, The Good News cannot be completely proclaimed without making mention of how The Holy Bible was written.

Commentary Continued...

PATH TO SALVATION

CHAPTER 1 WHO OWNS THE WORLD

THE HOLY BIBLE WAS PUT TOGETHER BY MEN OF GOD'S CHOICE, WHO WERE INSPIRED BY THE SPIRIT OF THE ALMIGHTY GOD, COMMONLY KNOWN AS THE HOLY GHOST OR THE HOLY SPIRIT. AND SOME OF THESE MEN WERE KNOWN AS PROPHETS, SERVING AS COMMUNICATION VESSELS BY DELIVERING VITAL MESSAGES FROM GOD TO MAN.

Another common description of The Holy Bible is that, The Words and The Content were God Breathed, meaning they were inspired and influenced by God. That is why we call the scriptures God's Word.

Having learned about God Almighty's identity and how His Word came about, we can without any inch of a doubt accept His existence by mere Faith, but also by the wonderful things we experience and observe daily as inhabitants of this planet.

As we move towards the latter chapters, verses and passages of this God-given assignment, anyone who has previously had doubts about His existence will be won over by far because of THE UNDENIABLE EVIDENCE DETAILING REAL LIFE EVENTS OF HIS SOVEREIGNTY AND POWER on planet earth.

CHAPTER 1 WHO OWNS THE WORLD

On the other hand, those that profess to be Atheist have since the days of old not managed to provide any evidence at all to support their belief. That is simply because there is no evidence for Atheism.

The above comments bring to conclusion the subject of WHO OWNS THE PLANET. And God's Word from the book of psalms unequivocally confirms His Truth.

Under normal circumstances, no further evidence should be required to PROVE THE TRUTH, because we see all the evidence around us on a daily basis, by simply looking at the beautiful nature which has been orderly crafted with love for the use of mankind.

The earth is The Lord's and the fulness thereof; the world and they that dwell therein.

Psalm 24: 1

The Heavens are Thine, the earth is also Thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, Thou hast found them.

Psalm 89: 11

CHAPTER 2

HOW GOD MADE IT – THE CREATION PROCESS, THE BLESSING AND THE RIGHT TO DOMINION

And God said, let there be light: and there was light.

And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.

And God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night.

And the evening and the morning were the first day.

Genesis 1: 3-5

COMMENTARY

That is how the designing process of the world began. And The Designer, Creator and Maker of all things in the universe, which included the galaxies and the elements is God Almighty. He simply commanded and they appeared.

THEREFORE, HE HAS CLAIM TO SOLE OWNERSHIP OF EVERYTHING EVERYWHERE AND ANYWHERE. He is The Landlord of the world.

PATH TO SALVATION

CHAPTER 2 HOW GOD MADE IT – THE CREATION PROCESS, THE BLESSING AND THE RIGHT TO DOMINION

God Almighty spoke all things into being with A Voice. He Spoke all things into existence by just saying them, and without the need of any physical manpower.

The New Testament book of St. John confirms that The Word was there before the creation process began. That The Word was with God, and The Word was God.

Relative to the above verses, there was nothing to be seen but absolute darkness. Then God made manifest light to represent the day and the night He left dark. That is the reason why we experience day and night within every twenty-four hours. A brief illustration putting emphasis on The Word is found in the next paragraph.

As humans with limited capabilities, without Faith we may struggle to comprehend how something that is not seen, can speak. But that is why God is God. There is absolutely no limits to what He is able to do. He is The Alpha and The Omega, The First and The Last, The Beginning and The End.

CHAPTER 2

HOW GOD MADE IT – THE CREATION PROCESS, THE BLESSING AND THE RIGHT TO DOMINION

Then God Almighty continued His Work on the second day by making the heavens, which is also known as the sky. He proceeded to create the land, now known as the earth by separating it from the water, and He called the water the seas.

On day three, God Almighty caused the earth to bring forth herb, grass and all the green that we use as food, medicine and shelter.

After that process, The Almighty God made The Sun, The Moon, and The Stars on day four.

And then on day five, all the living creatures of the seas and the land were commanded into existence by The Almighty Father. And these can also be presently used for our consumption.

Now, on Day Six, the number of man, THE LORD GOD OF LOVE, CARE AND INTELLIGENCE, having made absolutely sure that everything humans will ever need for survival, whether it be food, medicine, shelter and even for pleasure was in place, INTRODUCED THE FIRST MAN TO HIS FULLY EQUIPPED EARTH.

CHAPTER 2

HOW GOD MADE IT – THE CREATION PROCESS, THE BLESSING AND THE RIGHT TO DOMINION

And God said, Let us make man in Our image, after Our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

So God created man in His Own Image, in The Image of God He created them.

And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

And God said behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat.

And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to everything that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

And God saw everything that He had made, and behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were The Sixth Day.

Genesis 1:26-31

CHAPTER 2

HOW GOD MADE IT – THE CREATION PROCESS, THE BLESSING AND THE RIGHT TO DOMINION

COMMENTARY

So that brings to conclusion The Designing and Creation Process of The World and Humans by God Almighty. It was and is still absolutely wonderful because He said it was very good. The intelligence behind all His work was and still is clearly evident, and the whole process was made to be admired. Also obvious and very significant was the event that took place in verse twenty-seven, The Creation of man in The Image of God. That is why THE REAL IDENTITY OF EVERY HUMAN IS SPIRIT, AND NOT FLESH. The Flesh is not a man's real personality, but The Spirit is.

Furthermore, The Lord God Almighty was and is loving and kind to mankind, because the scriptures declare that He put the man above all the other creatures He had made prior. Most of which were far larger in form and strength than humans. Good examples are elephants, horses, lions, bulls and rhinos. God gave manpower, rule and dominion over all these beast and also of every creeping thing of the land and in the waters. What a kind and a loving God.

CHAPTER 2 HOW GOD MADE IT – THE CREATION PROCESS, THE BLESSING AND THE RIGHT TO DOMINION

To sum it all up, man, whom God created in His Spirit Image and Likeness was set apart and given special treatment by The Creator, which IS THE GIFT OF AN INTELLIGENT MIND. He basically gave the keys of this planet to man, saying, I LOVE YOU, HAVE ALL THESE WONDERFUL THINGS THAT I HAVE MADE AT YOUR DISPOSAL, THEY BELONG TO YOU.

For He hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of The Lord? or who shall stand in His Holy Place?

He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

CHAPTER 3 THE FIRST LAW OF GOD AND THE GIFT OF FREEWILL FROM GOD TO MAN

And The Lord God took the man, and put him into The Garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.

And The Lord God commanded the man, saying, of every tree of The Garden thou mayest freely eat:

But of The Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely die.

Genesis 2:15-17

COMMENTARY

Paradise has been the exact word used to describe The Garden of Eden, where The Almighty God placed OUR FIRST PARENTS, Adam and Eve. They were granted free access to everything around them except for one tree.

They had control over all the animals and were allowed to use every plant in the garden for food.

Commentary Continued...

PATH TO SALVATION

CHAPTER 3 THE FIRST LAW OF GOD AND THE GIFT OF FREEWILL FROM GOD TO MAN

For reasons that only God had the answer for, He placed a particular tree in the midst of the garden, and He commanded Adam and his wife not to eat of that tree.

He made it very clear to them that trespassing His law will definitely lead to their death. The puzzling aspect of this will be to wonder Why God decided to place The Forbidden Tree in a place that was accessible to Adam and Eve?

The answer to that question can be explained according the record of The Holy Bible, which is that, THE ALMIGHTY GOD CREATED MAN WITH A GIFT OF FREEWILL. He created man in His spirit image but did it in such a way that man will be able to make his own independent decisions.

A fitting illustration to the above will be a scenario where a person is only loved by their spouse as a result of an evil enchantment that he or she forced upon them.

Such an act will make the love between them untrue, selfish and one-sided. True love can only be expressed when both parties genuinely love each other.

Commentary Cont.

PATH TO SALVATION

CHAPTER 3 THE FIRST LAW OF GOD AND THE GIFT OF FREEWILL FROM GOD TO MAN

It is undeniable that God Almighty first loved man but He wanted to make sure that man also loved Him with all his heart, mind and soul. THAT WAS THE VERY REASON WHY GOD GAVE MAN THE GIFT OF FREEWILL. AND SECONDLY, HE WANTED MAN TO USE THE INTELLIGENT MIND THAT HAD BEEN AWARDED HIM TO MAKING THE RIGHT DECISIONS AND CHOICES ON A DAILY BASIS.

So, that was where the very FIRST LAW FROM GOD TO MAN began. God gave His children responsibility from the very beginning. Which had two opposite ends, a reward of ownership and having dominion over everything if they obeyed or a consequence and punishment for disobedience. That was the fate of our first ever ancestors.

The fear of The Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do His commandments: His Praise endureth forever.

CHAPTER 4 FIRST AND ORIGIN OF ALL HUMAN SIN AND THE CURSES THAT FOLLOWED

COMMENTARY

THE ORIGIN OF ALL HUMAN PROBLEMS, from petty lies to organised robbery, adultery to whoredom, from hate to murder, petty strife between two individuals to a full blown out battleground war on an international scale.

All these familiar sins are linked to and has its roots or origin in the above passages. Prior to The Curse, which started after our first parents had sinned against God, there was neither pain, toil nor death. God Almighty had from the beginning created man as pure, Holy and with a free gift of Eternal Life. All that immediately changed after the shameful fall of His first two human creation.

Now, as descendants of these two sinners, we have automatically inherited The Curse of death. Which means, we grow old, become weaker and then eventually pass away. This everlasting punishment may seem unfair to all those who had no part in the initial sin but who is man to question the rules and the ways of The Lord God, which is always fair and just, but also absolute.

To get to the root of The Curse and why it passes on to children's children, the answer simply comes down to blood. All humans have been created by God with one blood, and this has not changed since the very first man Adam. We should always remember that the woman was created with a rib of the man.

PATH TO SALVATION

CHAPTER 4 FIRST AND ORIGIN OF ALL HUMAN SIN AND THE CURSES THAT FOLLOWED

To fully comprehend the relation and interconnection of the entire human race, we need to know that we all have links to Adam and Eve. Every race, tribe, colour of skin have their roots in the first humans that God created. That is the reason why blood transfusion can be successfully performed across the races and across varying skin colours. As long as the blood type matches, blood of an African can be used to support a European or an Asian or any other race. All men and women have been created with the same blood and that will never change.

Now, The Serpent, also known in the Scriptures as Lucifer and The Devil was and is still a coward when carrying out his evil deeds. He uses the same old tricks. It is certainly unsurprising that he plotted his attack having intentionally first approached the weaker party of team Adam and Eve. We do not know how Adam would have reacted had Satan decided to first approach him with his lies, and to give him the forbidden fruit, but according to The Holy Bible, the male is the stronger of the two.

CHAPTER 4 FIRST AND ORIGIN OF ALL HUMAN SIN AND THE CURSES THAT FOLLOWED

Moving forward, the devil succeeded by enticing Eve to eat of the tree, which The Almighty God had warned them against. The Holy Bible indicates that Eve, having tasted of the fruit, offered her husband Adam a portion, which he did also eat. They then immediately discovered their nakedness which prompted them to hide from The Presence of The Almighty God.

But, with the eyes of God able to see everywhere at every time, He immediately found them having made aprons out of fig leaves to cover their nakedness. FROM THAT TIME FORWARD, AN EVERLASTING CURSE WAS CAST UPON THEM, THE EFFECTS OF WHICH THE ENTIRE WORLD IS REAPING TILL THIS VERY HOUR AND MINUTE.

Blessed is the man that walketh not the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.*

But his delight is in The Law of The Lord; and in His Law doth He meditate day and night.

And He shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.

The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in The Judgement, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

*For The Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Psalm 1:1-6

CHAPTER 5 EARTH'S FIRST BLOODSHED AS A RESULT OF THE SIN

Unto Adam also and to his wife did The Lord God make coats of skins, and clothed them.

Genesis 3:21

COMMENTARY

Following the trespassing of God Almighty's Law by Adam and Eve, they immediately discovered their nakedness. And that was because, after eating the fruit they were warned against, they became carnal, and also attained the Knowledge of Good and Evil. They then decided to cover themselves with fig leaves, making aprons out of the leaves, but that was contrary to the plan The Lord God Almighty had for them.

The severity of their error caused The Almighty God to shed the first animal blood on His newly created earth, to not only make them appropriate clothing, but also to temporarily cleanse them of their sins. And that was the beginning of a pattern of animal blood sacrifices, also known as ordinances for the cleansing of various sins on a temporary basis.

Commentary Continued...

CHAPTER 5 EARTH'S FIRST BLOODSHED AS A RESULT OF THE SIN

That practice continued throughout The Holy Bible until The Reformation by God Himself manifest in a human flesh as Jesus Christ, having to shed His Own Blood, for an everlasting propitiation of All Human Sins, through Salvation.

It is also necessary to revisit the Original Gift of Eternal Life that God awarded to Adam and Eve prior to them breaking His law. Which they lost as a result of their sin. But God being A Good Father and a Forgiving Father, had already put in place a Salvation Plan to redeem all mankind at a future date.

In spite of his error, The Holy Bible teaches that Adam lived nine hundred and thirty-six years. That proves the generosity, mercy and kindness of The Almighty God. He is long-suffering, always willing to give His children another chance so they can do right by obeying His commandments.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

CHAPTER 6 MAN EXPELLED FROM PARADISE BY GOD - CONSEQUENCES OF SIN

Adam had become evil and corrupt, making him the exact opposite of what God Almighty had purposed for him.

A swift action of exile and an absolute security plan was put in place by God to make sure no further damage was done to His plans which were in place before the foundations of the world were laid.

Everything had suddenly changed because ALL THE THOUGHTS OF A SINFUL MAN ARE USUALLY CORRUPT. That is why God decided to quickly take action.

In the midst of The Garden of Eden was a very special tree, known according to The Holy Bible as The Tree of Life. The fruits of that particular tree had the potential to restore the former status of Adam and his wife Eve. It was that tree that guaranteed Eternal Life, when eaten. So, had God not quickly secured access to that area, Adam may have been tempted to take of that fruit also. Which would have certainly allowed him to live forever as a sinner, thereby making him equal to The Devil. Meaning also that all their children and offspring would have inherited Everlasting Life as sinners.

CHAPTER 6 MAN EXPELLED FROM PARADISE BY GOD - CONSEQUENCES OF SIN

As evil as the world currently is, if that had taken place in The Beginning, we would have had over Seven Billion Satans doing as they please because they will not be in fear of any consequences for their evil actions.

God had a plan since the foundations of the world, and He was not going to allow anyone to cause any further damage to that. So He had done what was needed to be done by quickly expelling Adam from paradise. Also making sure there was absolute security to the entrance where The Tree of Life stood. A FLAMING SWORD BURNING WITH UNQUENCHABLE FIRE AND SPINNING TOWARDS EVERY DIRECTION.

God Almighty, being a Holy God, could not, and can neither have sinners around Him nor around anything He cherishes.

As a dream one awaketh, so, O LORD, when Thou awakest, Thou shalt despise their image.

Thus my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins.

So foolish was I, and ignorant: that I was a beast before Thee.

CHAPTER 7 CAIN KILLS HIS BROTHER ABEL – EARTH'S FIRST MURDER – EFFECTS OF SIN

And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from The Lord.

And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

And in the process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto The Lord.

And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And The Lord had respect unto Abel and to his offering:

But unto Cain and to his offering He had not respect, And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

And The Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and Why is thy countenance fallen?

If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

Not long after the shameful fall of the first ever couple, they begat two sons. The first was named Cain, and the second they called Abel. They were both farmers as was the tradition in those days. CHAPTER 7 CAIN KILLS HIS BROTHER ABEL – EARTH'S FIRST MURDER – EFFECTS OF SIN

It may seem unfair to them because they played no part in The Original Sin, they also certainly did not ask to be born but such are the Effects of Sin. It triggered a curse that trickles down to children of the offender and all their future generations.

There came a time when they both decided to offer sacrifices to The Lord God. Cain having worked in the field as a farmer, offered produce from the field. Whereas Abel decided to offer an Animal Sacrifice from his herd. The Almighty God acknowledged Abel's sacrifice but rejected that of Cain BECAUSE AFTER THE FIRST SIN, BLOOD SACRIFICE BECAME A STATUTE. The blood was able to cleanse man's sins for a limited period of time, which the green produce from the farm was incapable of achieving.

Because Cain's offer to God Almighty had been rejected and that of his younger brother accepted, he coveted his brother. He simply could not hold back his disappointment of being turned down by God for not doing well.

THE SIN OF ENVY CAUSED HIM TO COMMIT THE VERY FIRST MURDER ON PLANET EARTH. After that tragic but expected event because of The Curse, God Almighty questioned Cain concerning the whereabouts of his younger brother.

Instead of being truthful, Cain committed yet another sin by denying knowledge of where or what he had done to Abel, which constitute a SIN OF TELLING LIES.

What is quite notable is how soon The Curse, or in other words the Effects of The Sin manifested. Cain and Abel were the very first offspring descending from the first couple on earth. Unsurprisingly, it did not take long for the worse of sins, which was murder to occur as a result of the error of their parents.

COMMENTARY

GOD Almighty is Loving, Long-Suffering, Patient and a Merciful Father. However, looking carefully at the above passages, He was no more able to tolerate the behaviour of the ungrateful descendants of Adam and Eve, because He is Holy and despises sin. The Curses as result of the shameful fall in the garden of Eden had taken full effect, making man to become UNCONTROLLABLY EVIL BEINGS. There were all sorts of sins, such as adultery to rapes, and from regular violence to murders. Men were completely out of control, behaving like animals. The best illustration suitable for what these men of those days may have been like can be found in the (New Testament Book of Second Peter Chapter 2 Verses 10-14)

God Almighty looked upon the earth which He had created and found none but Noah and seven family members worthy of saving. Noah was a just and perfect man. He believed in and trusted in God

Almighty. He was informed by God and was given instructions on exactly what to do prior to the flood.

Then The Lord God gave Noah all necessary information concerning His plans to utterly destroy the whole earth as a result of the outrageous behaviour of the human race at that time. Noah was first ordered to build an ark, then he was to make sure his family members of seven were on board before the rain. Moreover, he was also commanded by God Almighty to take with him into the ark a couple of every living beast and every creeping thing that existed on the earth, ensuring that each kind entered in as male and female.

After that NOAH HAD OBEYED GOD ALMIGHTY, and done exactly according to what he was instructed, the rain began to pour on the earth, every day and every night, for forty days without a break.

That meant, no one was able to survive. EVERYTHING WAS UTTERLY DESTROYED. They included all the vegetation that existed upon the face of the earth. Nothing was able to grow during that time.

CHAPTER 10 THE ORIGIN AND SIGNIFICANCE OF THE RAINBOW

God Almighty is a Sovereign God, meaning, He requires no permission from anyone to do as He pleases. But He is also a Loving God, whose initial plan for placing man on earth, was nothing other than to prosper him and be a good Father to him.

As a result of His kindness and compassion, He made a New Covenant with Noah and his family members, promising never again to destroy the whole earth with water. Having thereby re-established His Initial Covenant to Noah this time, we can observe a God with nothing less of a good conscience. Because The Holy Bible indicates Him to have had remorse for His decision to destroy almost everything He had created.

To make the New Covenant sure and everlasting, The Lord God Almighty promised a sign of colourful bow in the sky when He brings a cloud in the sky. The sign was to give assurance to the inhabitants of the earth for ever, that no floods of such a magnitude was to ever occur.

So the origin of the rainbow was established after the floods as an Everlasting Covenant between God Almighty and every living creature till this very hour.

At some point, they embarked on a journey, then found a plain, which can in other words be described as a very practical location to build and to settle.

The children of Noah eventually devised a plan to build a tower with its heights reaching up to the heavens. They also wanted to make a name for themselves. On one hand that may have seemed like an ambitious plan to showcase their potentials. Whereas, on the contrary, the plan to build that tower displayed pride and arrogance, which we know is the opposite of what God Almighty expects from the man He had created.

As indicated in the earlier verses of the book of Genesis, God made the world with a plan. He wanted The Human Race to multiply and to replenish the entire earth, rather than settle at one particular location. As a result of that, the aspirations of men to build towers into the sky, instead of to expand and to extend to other parts of the planet was not in line with The Will of The Almighty Creator.

And Abram said, Behold, to me Thou hast given no seed: and, lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

And, behold The Word of The Lord came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir; but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

CHAPTER 12 GOD ALMIGHTY CALLS AND BLESSES ABRAHAM

COMMENTARY

The Blessing of Abraham by God Almighty was very significant to all the three major faiths as we know today. His blessing has also contributed to the prosperity of the entire world. Abram, as his name was prior to The Blessing lived in a place called Haran, where his father, brothers and wife Sarai also lived. Abram was commanded by God Almighty to leave his homeland and to travel to a foreign land. A place he had never been and knew no one there. By faith Abram obeyed The Instruction of God and did as he was commanded.

At the time Lot his nephew, who lost his father at a young age embarked on the journey with Abram and his wife Sarai.

As they travelled through various strange lands, The Lord God assured and blessed Abram. Then they arrived in the land of Canaan where he was promised by God that himself and his seed shall inherit that land, although the land was already inhabited by the Canaanites. At some point, they travelled into Egypt because there was famine in the land where they had settled.

CHAPTER 12 GOD ALMIGHTY CALLS AND BLESSES ABRAHAM

Then God appeared to Abraham in a vision, promising to make him the Father of many nations and to also make his name great. He was promised material blessings also. Furthermore, The Almighty God informed Abraham that all future generations were to come through him.

Initially Abraham was very sceptical because his wife Sarai had been barren for a long period, and was unable to bore children. They had tried for years to have their own children but without success. As men always do, Abraham also at the time saw no light at the end of the tunnel, he was not able to foresee how The Promise from God Almighty was to be manifest. So he made his concerns known to God, saying that the only likely heir to him was a steward of his house from Damascus named Eliezer. But The Lord God encouraged him by asking him to look up to the sky, and to number the stars. Then he promised Abraham that his seed shall be as great as the stars in the sky.

The Almighty God also promised Abraham to be his shield, assuring him of absolute security. Which was later manifest as he travelled along the paths that God had instructed him to.

In the same vision, Abraham was directed by God to make Animal Blood Sacrifices, which he did according to how he was told.

CHAPTER 12 GOD ALMIGHTY CALLS AND BLESSES ABRAHAM

Then a deep sleep fell upon Abram, and a horror of great darkness fell upon him. Soon after The Almighty God revealed His future plans to Abram, telling him that his seed, in other words, future generations of his, shall be strangers in a foreign land, and they will eventually end up as slaves.

That they were to serve as slaves for over four hundred years, highlighting that the nation that enslaved them was to be judged by Him.

But after all that had taken place in the future, Abraham's seed were to come out from that land with great substance, God having also assured Abraham that he was to live to a very old age in peace.

As for God, His Way is perfect: The Word of The Lord is tried: He is a buckler to all those that trust in Him.

Now Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children; and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.

And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, The Lord hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her. And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

CHAPTER 13 THE SIN OF ABRAHAM AND SARAI HIS WIFE – SIN UNAVOIDABLE

COMMENTARY

Here is Abraham, God Almighty's chosen. A righteous man selected from among many by God, but as the effects of The Curse after Adam's fall, sin could not be avoided by any carnal being, thereby resulting to Abraham's own mistake.

Sarai, Abrahams's wife was barren. Abraham and Sarai had tried for many years to bare children without any luck. They were growing older and as a result, they may have given up the possibility of that happening.

At some point, Sarai conceived a plan, offering her Egyptian maid Hagar, as wife to Abraham.

Being fully convinced that by this unethical plan, Abraham may finally be able to have his own child who will also be his natural heir. They discussed the plan between themselves and all parties including Hagar the maid agreed to go ahead with it.

Not long after, Hagar conceived. And after that she had become pregnant with her mistress's husband, Hagar's relationship with Sarai deteriorated. Sarai became jealous and Hagar may have also looked down on Sarai.

CHAPTER 13 THE SIN OF ABRAHAM AND SARAI HIS WIFE – SIN UNAVOIDABLE

That is what happens when decisions are taken without the wise counsel and more importantly The Blessing of our Creator, God Almighty.

Sarai being in charge of the home, quickly discussed the matter with her husband. She expressed remorse and regretted the Sinful Plan she had conceived.

Now Abraham was put in a very difficult position. He loved Sarai and his final answer to Sarai's complaint was, do with her as it pleases you. So Sarai began to hardly deal with Hagar, which then caused her to flee from the family home into the wilderness. That must have been extremely distressing for Abraham because his only child at the time was in the womb of the young lady his wife Sarai had indirectly driven out.

Abraham's story confirms that, after the fall of our ancestor Adam, it became impossible for any man to escape sin. Sin is always bound to happen by thought, word or deed.

God Almighty, being faithful to The Promise He had made to Abraham, caused an angel to appear unto Hagar whilst she was desperate in the wilderness.

The angel encouraged Hagar to return to Sarai and to submit herself to her mistress.

Furthermore, a promise was made to Hagar with regard to the significance and future of the child that was in her womb. He was to be named Ishmael and was to be a wild man, who will father a multitude of nations. The child's hand was to be against every man, and every man's hand against him.

As Ishmael was not The Promise child that God the Father made to Abraham, it was no surprise that the prophecy concerning the baby's future was a mix of good and bad. Good because God Almighty promised to multiply the seed of Abraham and His word is always sure. Bad because the child was impatiently conceived by a sinful method, hence the prophecy of Ishmael's seed being wild and highly likely to be confrontational. We are always to trust and wait for the set time of God Almighty's Promises.

COMMENTARY

The twin cities of Sodom and Gomorrah are to be remembered as the most notorious sinful cities of the ancient world even unto this very hour. Several references have been made within The Scriptures to these cities with regards to The Wrath and The Judgement of God Almighty against those that disobey His Laws.

It came to pass, after Abraham and his nephew Lot had separated because of strife among their servants, that Lot settled in the plain close to Jordan, namely Sodom and Abraham took instructions from God on where he was to settle. Lot being younger of the two men and with teenage daughters was drawn to all the worldly attractiveness of Sodom.

Although he was a righteous man, he dwelt among wicked, violent and sinful people, who had no reverence for The Laws of God Almighty. They were a proud and haughty people committing all sorts of immorality.

CHAPTER 14 GOD ALMIGHTY DESTROYS SODOM AND GOMORRAH WITH FIRE DUE TO SIN

At some point, God informed Abraham about what He intended to do to Sodom and Gomorrah because their cry was great before Him and their sin was very grievous. Being fully aware that His Nephew Lot and family were among the sinners, Abraham began to negotiate with God concerning the righteous people.

He commenced by asking God Almighty whether He will go ahead with His plans of destruction if peradventure fifty righteous people were found in the city. God Almighty answered by saying no - that He will spare the whole cities should fifty righteous people be found there. But that number was not to be found among the population.

Abraham reduced the number to forty-five but that number of righteous people were also not to be found in Sodom and Gomorrah.

Eventually they reached the number of ten righteous people, and God Almighty assured Abraham that should ten righteous people be found among the sinners, He was not going to destroy those cities.

Unfortunately, ten righteous people were not to be found among them, so God and Abraham ended their communing and they parted ways.

Not long after, The Lord ordered Two Angels to go into the cities. They arrived and Lot welcomed them at the gates. Then he invited them over into his home but the men of the city demanded that Lot hand the angels over to them. Lot pleaded with them and even offered his two daughters in place of The Angels but they will neither accept nor leave.

As the tension outside Lot's home mounted, The Angels caused all the inhabitants of Sodom who were outside the front door of Lot's house to be blinded. As a direct result of that, Lot, his daughters and his wife managed to escape the aggression of the people.

Right after that, The angels delivered their message of being sent by God Almighty to destroy those cities to Lot and advised him to gather all members of his household including the husbands of his daughters.

CHAPTER 15 GOD ALMIGHTY DELIVERS ON HIS PROMISE TO ABRAHAM- ISAAC IS BORN

COMMENTARY

Following a series of events, Abraham continued his journey according to the instructions and directions of The Almighty God. Then as expected from God, The Promise Child was conceived.

Although Sarah was in her old age and had long ceased from all the biological cycles of women, she still conceived. Is there anything too hard for The Lord?

At the time appointed, I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son. (Genesis 18: 14).

These were the exact words that The Three Angels who previously visited their family home asked, because Sarah had laughed after being told by them that she will have her own child.

God Almighty never fails on His Promises. He had made a Covenant with Abraham assuring him that his seed shall be the father of future nations. Even his old age of one hundred years did not prevent The Promise being fulfilled. With men some things are impossible but with God all things are possible.

So, they named the child Isaac, meaning God hath made me laugh. We are to always trust and obey His Promises and Commandments. The Holy Bible confirms that lack of faith in the Promises of God Almighty is sin because God never lies.

CHAPTER 16 JOSEPH'S BROTHERS PLOT TO KILL HIM BUT HE IS SOLD INTO SLAVERY

And they sent the coat of many colours , and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: know now whether it be thy son's coat or no.

And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces.

And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

And the Midianites sold him into Egypt unto Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, and captain of the guard.

COMMENTARY

Moving on from the birth of Isaac, The Promise continued as predetermined by God Almighty. Isaac gave birth to twins, Esau and Jacob. Jacob being the younger child, tricked his brother Esau over a mere bowl of stew to inherit The Birth Right which was also The Blessing.

From the loins of Jacob, whose name God Almighty changed to Israel came The Twelve Tribes Of Israel. They were named as follows: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, Joseph, Benjamin, Dan, Naphtali, Gad, Asher. Joseph being the seventh and the favourite child of his father, was treated special above the other brothers, which caused them to envy him.

Here was another case of the effects of The Curse. A similar sin prompted Cain to commit the very first murder in the history of mankind by killing his brother Abel.

Now the jealous brothers sought an opportunity to do evil against their younger brother whom they hated also because he dreamt DREAMS putting them in servitude under him.

CHAPTER 16 JOSEPH'S BROTHERS PLOT TO KILL HIM BUT HE IS SOLD INTO SLAVERY

Their chance came when Jacob their father sent Joseph to them in the field. They initially plotted to kill him as they saw him arrive but Reuben the older brother intervened. He suggested they put Joseph in a nearby pit with the intention of delivering him at a later stage, so that he can return him to Jacob their father.

Unfortunately, whilst Reuben was away, the rest of the brothers made a decision to rather sell Joseph to slave traders from Gilead who passed by them at the time heading to Egypt. They eventually sold him for twenty pieces of silver to the Ishmeelites.

To cover up their sins, they tore apart his coat of many colours and then killed a goat at the scene. And they used the blood of the animal to soil Joseph's coat. Having conceived, executed and profited materially from their sins, they delivered the blood soiled coat of many colours to their father Jacob. They convinced him that some wild animal may have devoured their brother.

Jacob, without a doubt, was inconsolable, because, Joseph was his favourite son by a far measure and also the son of his favourite wife Rachel, who died whilst giving birth to Benjamin, Joseph's younger brother.

CHAPTER 16 JOSEPH'S BROTHERS PLOT TO KILL HIM BUT HE IS SOLD INTO SLAVERY

Once again we have learned from the above passages that The Curse after the fall could not and cannot be avoided. Humans are simply evil in the mind, soul and heart as a result of the effects of The Curse.

They gather themselves against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.

But The Lord is my defence and my God is the rock of my refuge.

JOSEPH IS FALSELY ACCUSED AND PUT INTO PRISON - EFFECTS OF SIN

And Joseph was brought down to Egypt: and, Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmeelites, which had brought him down thither.

And The Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man; and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

And his master saw that The Lord was with him, and that The Lord made all that he did to prosper in his hand.

And Joseph found grace in his sight, and he served him: and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand.

And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that The Lord blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and The Blessing of The Lord was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand, and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat. And Joseph was a goodly person and well favoured.

CHAPTER 17

JOSEPH IS FALSELY ACCUSED AND PUT INTO PRISON - EFFECTS OF SIN

Slander has in the past caused so many to be wrongfully put to death, both during ancient times and also in the modern era.

As determined by God Almighty, Joseph ended up a slave in Egypt. That prophecy was foretold by God to Abraham at the time of The Blessing that his seed were to sojourn in a land which was not theirs. Here, we see that prophecy unfolding and being manifest.

Joseph on arriving in Egypt after being sold to the Ishmeelites by his own brothers, ended up being further sold to the captain of the guard of Pharaoh the king's army. With the hand of God Almighty on him, Joseph was successful in all aspects of his life. He was a loyal servant and as a result Potiphar his master put him in charge of all his household. He was given access to everything Potiphar owned except for his wife. God Almighty also blessed Potiphar in many ways because of Joseph. And Joseph was handsome and well favoured because God was with him in everything he did.

As a result of his popularity, the wife of Joseph's master cast her eyes on him, with a sinful desire and intention to commit fornication and adultery.

CHAPTER 17 JOSEPH IS FALSELY ACCUSED AND PUT INTO PRISON - EFFECTS OF SIN

But Joseph being a God Fearing Man, refused the constant evil advances of his master's wife. He also put into consideration all the trust that his master had shown to him by making him overseer of his house. Therefore he was certainly not going to sin.

Sadly, with the influence of the devil, sinners always found an occasion to perform their evil actions. That was the case with Potiphar's wife. She waited till a day when none of the men in the house were present. Then she made her desperate attempt to lie with Joseph but the plan failed. She only managed to get her hands on his clothes whilst he fled from the scene, which she eventually used as false evidence against Joseph.

As it has always been proven, sin after being committed may lead to another sin, with the purpose of covering up the initial sin.

So the matter eventually reached the master of the house, who then decided to believe the story of his wife over the truth of what actually took place. That is how Joseph ended up in prison.

And the ill favoured kine did eat up the seven well favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

CHAPTER 18 GOD ALMIGHTY DELIVERS JOSEPH FROM PRISON - HE IS MADE PRIME MINISTER OF EGYPT

During the time of Joseph's imprisonment as a result of false allegations, he helped interpret two dreams of fellow prisoners, who had previously been servants of the king of Egypt. Both interpretations were accurate. One was reinstated to his former work as a chief butler and the other, a former chief baker was beheaded just as Joseph had advised them.

Two years after that, Pharaoh, king of Egypt dreamt two dreams that he did not understand, and he woke up very worried. He consulted with all the magicians and wise men in the land but none was able to help explain what those dreams meant. After all efforts to find an able interpreter had failed, Pharaoh's butler whom Joseph had helped in prison, remembered Joseph. He advised the king on the help he had received from Joseph with regards to him interpreting dreams with accuracy.

Pharaoh was delighted to hear the good news, so he immediately ordered that Joseph be released from prison. Joseph arrived at the king's palace, well shaven and dressed. Then after Pharaoh had told the dream to him, Joseph replied by saying it is God that gave answers to dreams.

Here was a manifestation of the dream Joseph had told his brethren whilst they lived together in Canaan which indicated them making obeisance to him, in other words, bowing before him.

CHAPTER 20 JOSEPH FORGIVES HIS EVIL BROTHERS – THE POWER OF FORGIVENESS

COMMENTARY

As it is commonly observed with people who commit evil, they are never at rest around their victim regardless of how many years are gone past. That was the case with the brothers despite having been welcomed into Egypt by Joseph and having lived there for a significant time period. They had plotted to kill him when he was yet with them in the land of Canaan but eventually succeeded in selling him to Ishmeelites slave traders.

Jacob their father had passed away in old age after the migration of the entire family into Egypt. It came to pass that the brothers of Joseph began to worry that he might decide to avenge their past evil deeds against him. They had actually prior to Jacob's death, consulted him on their fears and concerns. Where they were given the command to make a formal apology to Joseph at a future date.

COMMENTARY

Long after Pharaoh the Egyptian king had died, and Joseph also and all his brothers that came into Egypt had died, the Israeli descendants greatly flourished and multiplied in number. CHAPTER 21 ISRAELITES ARE ENSLAVED IN EGYPT – GOD’S PROPHECY TO ABRAHAM UNFOLDING

Pharaoh had no idea about the significant contributions Joseph had made to his country, having saved lives and transformed Egypt during the famine.

The new king became increasingly worried as he observed the growth and the prosperous ways of The Children of Israel. He deemed them to be a threat against his country. Expressing concerns that they may even join the enemies of Egypt during times of war to fight against them.

As a direct results of his fears and concerns, Pharaoh devised an evil plan to burden the Israelites with various difficult tasks such as the construction of treasure cities in Pithom and Rameses. He also set over the Hebrews wicked taskmasters who were responsible for making sure the Israelites were hard dealt with at all times. To the frustration of Pharaoh, the more his taskmasters afflicted The Children of Israel, the more their population grew. That was because The Lord God was with the Hebrews at all times.

So the Egyptians increased the burdens on the Israelites, by commanding them to gather their own straw for the construction of bricks. They did all sorts of evil against them but God was always with the Hebrews.

However, there is a comforting aspect to all that the Hebrews were enduring. That was in perfect line with the will and purpose of God Almighty's plan for the redemption of mankind at a later stage. He was also to display His Omnipotence over Pharaoh, who worshipped other inferior gods. The prophecy revealed to Abraham in a vision continues.

CHAPTER 22 MOSES IS BORN – HE IS PLACED BY GOD IN THE PALACE OF KING PHARAOH

And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah:

And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive.

And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?

And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are very lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that He made them houses.

And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

And there went a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

And the woman conceived, and bare a son: and when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months.

And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the river's brink.

And his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him. And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

*And when she had opened it, she saw the child; and, behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews children.

Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

COMMENTARY

NOW, it came to pass that the Egyptian king grew more desperate as a result of the protection The Children of Israel received from The Almighty God. He had experimented several evil tactics to ensure the Hebrews neither grew in number nor prospered. But none of his evil plans prevailed because he was indirectly fighting against God Almighty Himself. In which case there can only be one obvious winner.

As time passed by, the king of Egypt decided to use the midwives as a weapon to reduce the Hebrew population by commanding them to kill every newborn Hebrew boy child. But the female newborn babies were to remain alive.

Under the protection of the Almighty Father, the midwives refused to carry out Pharaoh's evil and wicked instructions. That resulted in a further surge of the Hebrew population, which must have definitely annoyed Pharaoh.

The Hebrews grew mightier as time passed. Then The Almighty God blessed the midwives with material things such as houses for their refusal to carry out the murderous plan of Pharaoh.

Pharaoh, having miserably failed with his initial plan because God intervened to protect the Hebrew Children, resulted to another evil plot, where he ordered all the citizens of Egypt to cast every newborn boy child from among the Hebrews into the river. The girl babies were to be left unharmed.

Around the same period of time, a young family from the tribe of Levi conceived a son. They successfully hid the child for three months without external detection. As the child grew older, they were no longer able to hide him, possibly because the child cried a lot louder for want of food. So the parents devised a brilliant plan, which had the hand of The Almighty God in it. They constructed a waterproof basket, placed their son in it and left it in the flags of the river brink. The baby's parents made sure their daughter kept watch to ensure what happened to their child or who was to find the basket.

Not long after that, one of the daughters of Pharaoh and her maids came along to the river to bathe. They discovered the basket and found in it a baby, whom Pharaoh's daughter later named Moses, meaning, drawn out of water.

But the sister of baby Moses, immediately approached Pharaoh's daughter and her maids offering to find them a suitable Hebrew maid. Then the daughter of the Levi family hurried to fetch the baby's own mother to work as a maid for Pharaoh's daughter, also having accepted a regular wage offer from the king's daughter. Moses ended up being raised by his own mother till a certain age before he was delivered to his Adopted Mother in the Palace of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

God Almighty works in mysterious ways. A baby who should have been murdered according to the orders of the wicked king, ended up living in the palace of the wicked king as his adopted grandson. Thus The Almighty God set His plans for Moses at a very young age. Having placed Moses in the midst of those that disobeyed Him, and those that He was to inflict judgement upon at a future date.

CHAPTER 23 MOSES IS CALLED BY GOD TO LEAD THE ISRAELITES OUT OF SLAVERY FROM EGYPT

COMMENTARY

As Moses grew older being an adopted son and a prince in the palace of the king of Egypt, he became increasingly concerned with the welfare of The Children of Israel. Particularly concerning the evil deeds of the Egyptian taskmasters towards the Hebrews. After a fatal intervention whilst defending an Israeli man who was being ill-treated by an Egyptian Soldier, Moses fled into exile citing fears of possible retribution.

He eventually arrived in the land of the Midianites. Where he once again had compassion on the oppressed by stepping in to defend powerless young women by the side of a well, who were being bullied by local shepherds.

That granted him access to the home of the priest of Midian by invitation. Moses then married one of Jethro's seven daughters. And as was the custom in those days, son in laws kept watch of the flock of their father-in-law.

On one faithful day, Moses arrived on Mount Horeb with his flock, where he soon observed a very unusual sight of a burning bush which was not consumed.

Out of curiosity, Moses drew near to the burning bush. Then he suddenly heard a Majestic Voice calling his name from out of the burning bush.

He was immediately commanded by The Voice to take his sandals off his feet because he stood on a Holy Ground. Soon after, God Almighty introduced Himself to Moses, referring to the names of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Moses listened but was sore afraid to be in The Presence of The God of all The Universe.

The Lord God continued speaking with A Voice to Moses about being aware of the afflictions against The Children of Israel by the Egyptians, then He promised to deliver them from bondage. He also promised to send them to a land flowing with milk and honey, mentioning the names of the tribes that already occupied the land. Making known to Moses that He intended to drive those that lived on the land out because they forsook His ways.

The Lord then commanded Moses to go back into Egypt, and to Pharaoh. He was to confront Pharaoh by seeking liberation of The Children of Israel from their bondage.

Then God asked him to tell them that He is the God of their fathers, The God of Abraham, The God of Isaac and The God of Jacob because the elders knew about Him. The Lord God also commanded Moses to tell The Children of Israel that I AM hath sent him to deliver them from oppression.

COMMENTARY

God Almighty is Omnipotent, meaning All-Powerful. He created everything and anything that is in existence. He is also a Sovereign God, doing all things according to His Will and Purpose, but always with Good Will and Good Intentions.

Egypt, being one of the richest and most developed nations at that time, had strayed from The Ways and Laws of The Creator. They had made them gods of wood and stone and were worshipping those idols rather than The Almighty God.

They had also grown proud, arrogant and wicked in all their ways, hence the intervention of The Almighty God into their affairs.

CHAPTER 24 A MIGHTY DISPLAY OF GOD ALMIGHTY'S POWER – MIRACLES AND PLAGUES IN EGYPT

With God being all Powerful and Sovereign He knew that in order to display His might to the whole human race, He had to harden Pharaoh's heart. Having also already predetermined the beginning and the end of the events that were to take place in Egypt.

Egypt, after the generation of Joseph and their former king. The new Pharaoh had taken The Children of Israel into captivity, using them to construct treasure cities and treating them very harsh. So The Almighty God set up His deliverance plan by placing Moses into the Palace of Pharaoh at a very young age. Several years after that, He appeared unto Moses on mount Horeb, where He assigned him to go deliver The Children of Israel from slavery.

Moses, accompanied by his brother Aaron were divinely equipped by The Almighty Creator to carry out the rescue mission in the land of Egypt. The Lord God assured Moses that He had made him a god in the presence of Pharaoh the Egyptian king. Meaning, Moses was given power that proceeded directly from the Spirit of God.

As the brothers arrived at the Egyptian palace to deliver God's message to Pharaoh, he reacted exactly as he was expected to.

So Moses ordered Aaron to cast his rod to the ground, and it became a snake. Now, The Lord God had already shown that same miracle to Moses on Mount Horeb, when He first introduced Himself as the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Pharoah also ordered his own magicians to do likewise, they all threw down their rods and several snakes appeared. Soon after, The One Snake from Aaron's rod swallowed all the other snakes in the presence of the audience. Then Aaron picked his snake by the tail, and it immediately changed back into a rod.

Several other damaging plagues, signs and wonders soon followed but because The Almighty God had hardened Pharaoh's heart, he refused to let The Children of Israel go. These included the entire water supply of Egypt and all their streams and rivers being turned into blood. The death of all the cattle in the land of Egypt. The plague of locusts consumed all the vegetation across the entire country. A damaging thunder of hailstorm and fire, total darkness in the entire land of Egypt for three days and three nights, The Holy Bible describes that particular plague as darkness which may be felt.

CHAPTER 25 EVIDENCE OF GOD AND THE SIGNIFICANCE OF BLOOD – THE PASSOVER

That first occurred in the paradise garden of Eden after Satan deceived the First Human Couple into a sinful act, which resulted to them being separated from God The Father. An animal was killed, to not only cloth them after they had discovered their nakedness but also to make a temporary atonement for the sins they had committed.

However, on the event of The Passover, the blood sacrifice was ordered by God Almighty as a Protection Plan for The Children of Israel. After that The Lord God had proven His omnipotence through several plagues against Egypt, He decided to perform One Last Plague that was to cause Pharaoh to finally allow The Children of Israel to leave his country as free people. They had been enslaved for over four hundred years, but The Holy Bible indicated that, after the final plague, Pharaoh was to beg the Israelites to leave Egypt.

A very detailed instructions from God concerning what had to be done before that faithful night of the Passover was given to Moses by an Angel of The Lord. Every family within every house or home had to slaughter an animal at evening time. They were to take of the animal blood and to strike it on the two side posts and the upper door posts of the houses where the late dinner was to be eaten.

But because of the Animal Blood which the Israeli's will display as they were ordered by God, none of their firstborns were to be killed on that night. They were also assured that none of all the congregation of the Hebrews will be hurt in any way, not even a dog was to move its tongue. And The Lord ordered them that The Passover was to be remembered with an annual feast throughout all their future generations and forever. It came to pass that every detail of the Divine Instruction from The Creator of the world was fully adhered to by The Children of Israel on that faithful day.

But all The Children of Israel who lived in the same country remained unharmed and alive. According to The Holy Bible, not even a dog moved its tongue on that night. Which was the direct opposite of the great cry of the Egyptians across all the land.

Immediately after that tragic event, Pharaoh hastened to summon Moses and Aaron to his palace. Fearing that he himself and all the rest of his countrymen will be next to die, he pleaded with Moses to take along with him all the Israelites on that same night, driving them out of Egypt.

As predestined by The Almighty God, the Israelites received several jewels of gold, silver and clothes from their oppressors. The Lord God gave The Children of Israel favour in the sight of their enemies.

Then on the same night, six hundred thousand men, beside children and a mixed multitude who had been enslaved by Egypt for over four hundred and thirty years, left Egypt on foot towards the desert. CHAPTER 26

THE PROPHECY OF JOSEPH FULFILLED AND FURTHER EVIDENCE OF THE ALMIGHTY GOD

But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and The Children of Israel went up harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

*And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn The Children of Israel, saying God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry my bones away hence with you.

And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

And The Lord went before them by day in A Pillar of A Cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in A Pillar of Fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:

He took not away The Pillar of The Cloud by day, nor The Pillar of Fire by night, from before the people.

CHAPTER 26 THE PROPHECY OF JOSEPH FULFILLED AND FURTHER EVIDENCE OF THE ALMIGHTY GOD

COMMENTARY

Prior to leaving Egypt with all the freed slaves, Moses made sure the Bones of Joseph was excavated from his burial place. Making also sure that the bones were taken along with them to The Promise land.

That event fulfilled the prophecy of ...

And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land which He sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

And Joseph took an oath of The Children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.

Genesis 50: 24 -25

They all left Egypt and headed towards the wilderness in the direction of the Red Sea.

CHAPTER 26 THE PROPHECY OF JOSEPH FULFILLED AND FURTHER EVIDENCE OF THE ALMIGHTY GOD

To make sure the people were protected and properly led, God Almighty provided them with The Pillar of Cloud by day and A Pillar of Fire by night. That was to assure them that they had not just been delivered from out of bondage, but they were to be fully led to their promised destination by the same God who had liberated them.

And as they travelled along in the wilderness, The Lord God never took away The Pillar of Cloud by day and The Pillar of Fire by night. Here is a display of God Almighty's providence, using the elements that He had created to lead His children to His promised and desired destination. Amen.

CHAPTER 27 GOD ALMIGHTY COMPLETES HIS DELIVERANCE MISSION IN EGYPT – PARTING OF THE RED SEA

And The Lord spake unto Moses saying,

Speak unto The Children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pihahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, over against Baalzephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

For Pharaoh will say of The Children of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I AM THE LORD. And they did so.

And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled; and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we let Israel go from serving us?

And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him:

So Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea , and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called Marah.

And the people murmured against Moses, saying, what shall we drink?

And he cried unto The Lord; and The Lord shewed him a tree, which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there He made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there He proved them.

And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of The Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in His sight, and wilt give ear to His Commandments, and keep all His Statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I AM THE LORD that Healeth thee.

CHAPTER 28 THE PEOPLE MURMUR IN THE DESERT DUE TO LACK OF FAITH IN GOD

COMMENTARY

After the miraculous crossing of The Red Sea, the Israelites were finally free from four hundred and thirty years of slavery under the rule of Egyptians. They were also first hand eye witnesses to the fate of their former oppressors, having seen them all drowned in the Red sea. Manifesting The Words of which Moses had prior to the parting of the Red sea, spoken, saying, these Egyptians you see today, you will see no more. Everything had gone exactly according to what The Lord God had promised and already executed.

Nevertheless, The Children of Israel were humans. They were also Descendants of The Fallen Adam, and as a result of The Curses due to sin, they were bound to continue breaking God Almighty's Law. Therefore it was not a surprise that they rebelled against Moses and God after encountering their first challenge in the wilderness.

Having travelled in the desert for three days without any water, they reached a place with water, named Marah. They may have been very excited, but they soon discovered that the water was too bitter for consumption.

CHAPTER 28 THE PEOPLE MURMUR IN THE DESERT DUE TO LACK OF FAITH IN GOD

Instead of them staying calm and putting all their trust in the God who had just delivered them from Egypt, they murmured against Moses. Now this must have been very disappointing for Moses because he knew that The God Who Delivered them three days prior was able to protect and to supply everything they needed.

So Moses immediately cried out to The Lord for help under intense pressure from the people, and The Almighty God Who always has all the answers to every human problem directed Moses to a particular tree. After Moses had obeyed God's command by casting that particular tree into the bitter waters, the waters became sweet and drinkable.

From then on, the Almighty Father supplied The Children of Israel with more water than they needed. They eventually reached a place called Elim, where they found twelve wells of usable water, ready and available to them.

The lesson to be leant here is that, God Almighty knows about all human needs and wants. In difficult situations or circumstances, we are always to keep calm and to fully submit to Him, and then allow Him to be in control.

Lastly, the murmuring of the people caused God to issue a warning to The Children of Israel. He promised to heal them, rather than to put any diseases on them such as was done to the Egyptians during the plagues, if they gave ear to His Commandments and His Statutes, and do what is right in His Sight at all times.

SUPERNATURAL FOOD DELIVERED FROM HEAVEN TO THE PEOPLE - THE GOODNESS AND PROVIDENCE OF GOD

COMMENTARY

So The Children of Israel continued their journey through the wilderness. They had travelled further from Elim, where The Almighty God provided them with more water than they needed after they had murmured against Moses and Aaron. They then arrived at a place called Sin, having been freed from the land of Egypt fifteen days prior. They had all witnessed several plagues, signs and wonders that was performed by The Almighty God in Egypt and also in the wilderness by the waters of Marah. That experience should have given them assurance that The Lord God was their God and He was never to forsake them.

Once again, they encountered problems, which was food shortage and not water. In spite of the previous provision of water supplied by God after they murmured against Moses, his brother Aaron and God, they repeated their ungrateful behaviour of murmuring. Displaying once more their lack of faith and trust in the providence of God their Father. They made several offensive comments against Moses and his brother Aaron. Having stated that their situation back in Egypt as slaves was better than being free men without food.

Then they further accused Moses and Aaron, saying that, the brothers had brought them into the desert to kill them with hunger. As that went on, The Lord God Almighty observed their ungratefulness and their murmurings.

Then God intervened to promise to Moses, that He was to supply them with enough flesh and food from heaven.

Which Moses told the congregation of The Children of Israel, having also warned them to be careful of their actions because they were not murmuring against him but against God Who made him leader.

As Aaron continued speaking to the people, several quails flew towards the camp, with some flying very low, which then allowed the people to easily capture them for food. The Children of Israel caught the birds, killed, cooked and ate as much meat as they desired. The Promise of The Lord had been manifest once more.

The following morning, The Almighty God delivered yet another promise by providing supernatural food from heaven. That was a type of food that The Children of Israel had never seen. They were confused as to what it was, so They called it manna, meaning what is it.

They were soon ordered in detail to collect as much as they needed daily by The Almighty God. That being a way to prove whether the people will adhere to His instructions and laws. If anyone had collected more than they needed for the day and left it overnight, it grew into worms. But prior to each Sabbath Day, The Lord commanded the people to collect enough manna to cover two whole days because no one worked on Sabbath Days. And when they obeyed and did that which The Lord commanded, the manna was still good for consumption the following day, showing no signs of worms.

CHAPTER 30

GOD ALMIGHTY'S RIGHTEOUS AND ETERNAL LAW – DELIVERY OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

COMMENTARY

Three whole months quickly passed after the mighty deliverance from slavery in the land of Egypt. Then THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY spoke again to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai. The congregation had just set up their tents close to the mount where they were to meet The God that Delivered Them Out of Bondage and out of Egypt for the very first time.

Here, THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY of the entire universe was to display His Omnipotence, Sovereignty and to inform of His Full Ownership of the world to Moses and all the congregation of The Children of Israel. He began by promising to put them above all nations of the earth and to make of them, A Holy Nation and a Kingdom of Priests. Urging them also to hearken to and to be fully obedient to His Laws and to keep the agreement between Him and them, which in other words is known as A Covenant. So Moses delivered the message to the congregation, exactly as The Almighty God had commanded him. Then the people immediately answered and agreed to do as they were commanded by God Almighty.

As a result of The Holiness of God, He put certain preconditions in place so as to protect the people from being harmed because they were all sinners, being descendants of first sinners Adam and Eve.

CHAPTER 30

GOD ALMIGHTY'S RIGHTEOUS AND ETERNAL LAW – DELIVERY OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

They were commanded to keep distant from the edge of the mountain where the Spirit of The Almighty God was to descend. Anyone who disobeyed was to be instantly killed. They were also ordered to sanctify themselves, wash their clothes and to avoid intimacy with their wives prior to meeting God. All that was necessary to make sure none of the people died because God is Holy and despises sin.

Then after all the orders had been adhered to, there came a mighty display of the supernatural on and around the mount called Sinai. There were thunders and lightnings, a thick cloud, smoke, fire, earthquaking and a very loud voice of a trumpet which increased in volume as the people waited for The Almighty God.

Then Moses began to speak to God as though he was speaking to a man. And The Lord God Almighty spoke back, answering Moses with a Terrifying Voice. Soon afterwards, God Himself descended unto the top of Mount Sinai.

He continued speaking to Moses, ordering him to charge the people, also asking Moses to keep them from getting too close to the edge of the mountain.

Because He was concerned that they might break through out of curiosity or excitement, wanting to see His face, which may result to their death due to His HOLINESS.

Then finally came the moment of the delivery of The Ten Commandments. A mighty voice from the top of the mount began to command Moses and The Children of Israel. A Voice from God Himself began to deliver His Commandments to all that were present on and at the bottom of Mount Sinai. Then the people began to tremble as a result of The Majestic Sights and Sounds at the scene. They were so afraid that they pleaded with Moses to deliver the message to them rather than The Almighty God speaking directly to them, and that was because they feared they will all perish.

And it came to pass that all The Ten Commandments were simultaneously delivered by The Voice of The Almighty God in the presence of Moses, Aaron (his brother and prophet), and all The Children of Israel who remained at the bottom of Mount Sinai on that faithful day. All having heard and witnessed The Magnificent Power of The Creator of All The Universe, The God of Abraham, The God of Isaac and The God of Jacob.

CHAPTER 31 THE FULFILMENT OF PROPHECY, THE LAW AND THE UPLIFTING OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

COMMENTARY

We have arrived at the beginning of the long-anticipated New Testament. Here is the epitome of God Almighty's Redemption Plan since the fall of His first human creation Adam, who broke The First-Ever Commandment of God by committing sin. And from that time, everything The Lord God had done with mankind was to lead to The Mighty Name of our LORD and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Thus, God Almighty, The Creator of the whole universe, which includes the planet earth, transformed Himself and was manifest into One Human Body. Having therewith fulfilled the prophecies of His coming to dwell among humans for the sake of Our Salvation. Which was proclaimed throughout the generations by His chosen Holy Prophets as recorded in the Old Testament section of The Holy Bible.

Although the prophecy of The Messiah was determined from the very beginning according to The Holy Bible, the most notable prediction of His coming on earth, was spoken of and recorded in The Scriptures seven hundred years prior to His incarnation into a human body. Which is found in the Old Testament book of Isaiah.

Isaiah 9:6-7

The above scripture inspired by The Holy Spirit of God and delivered to men by Isaiah the Prophet accurately foretold events concerning The Incarnation of Jesus Christ into a Human body, which in other words can be referred to as His birth. Moving on, the following prophecy by another Holy Spirit filled Prophet of God Almighty detailed the return of our LORD Jesus Christ at a future date to rule the entire world.

Daniel 7: 13-14

COMMENTARY

Now here is The Truth. If the first prophecy came to pass with accuracy, what then should the world expect from the Second Coming prediction also made hundreds of years before Jesus Christ first arrived on planet earth.

Having confirmed the accuracy of Bible prophecy, The Grace of our LORD Jesus Christ was and is the greatest gift from God to mankind. And, since the fall of Adam and the consequential curses that trickled down to all people, no human has been worthy and able to please God with their own efforts (clearly stated in the book of Romans 3: 23-25).

Romans 3:23-25

COMMENTARY

The Grace of God is a free gift from God Almighty/Jesus Christ. However, this Amazing Grace should never be taken for granted. Deliberate and repetitive sinning may not be Covered by Grace. In other words, knowing the difference between good and evil, and choosing to do evil will certainly lead to judgement.

The Law was delivered by God to Moses in the Old Testament, but Jesus Christ became the only Law after His resurrection because He conquered sin and death.

CHAPTER 31 THE FULFILMENT OF PROPHECY, THE LAW AND THE UPLIFTING OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Henceforth, Jesus Christ took on Him the form of a man, so He can dwell among them and thereby reconcile all humans to God The Father.

He was to fulfil The Law and The Prophets, but The Ten Commandments were to remain forever. Meaning, the ordinances of animal blood sacrifices and various other laws became no longer necessary because Christ was an Everlasting Replacement.

Thus confirming The Eternal Plan for our Salvation had just been completed by Him and thereby making all those ordinances and sacrifices from that very moment of none effect.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS however were never to be relaxed, neither were they to be abolished. They are an EVERLASTING MORAL LAW from THE ALMIGHTY GOD HIMSELF. On the contrary, Jesus Christ on His arrival to earth raised the standards of what was to be classified as iniquity, sin and transgression.

Adultery according to The Commandments delivered to Moses prior to Jesus' arrival on earth was interpreted as married people having extra marital affairs. Jesus Christ uplifted that rule to a higher standard by commanding that anyone who looked at the opposite sex with lust in their heart had already committed the sin of adultery. Likewise did He to The Commandment of Thou Shalt Not Kill.

The God that created all things From The Beginning had just revealed Himself to St. John the apostle in Spirit, informing him of exactly how the end shall be. The God Who formed our First Ancestor Adam was exacting His final plans for mankind to a righteous man, commanding St. John to make sure His words were written.

There is definitely no doubt that all the attributes of The Almighty God are good and His intentions and plans for Mankind have always been nothing but to prosper them. Many great teachers of the Gospel have taught a great deal on this Good God in recent times but may have left untaught the God of judgement, in other words, The Jesus Christ of Judgement. Which has always been the most important aspect of The Holy Bible, also being the real essence of The True Gospel.

At the last day, there will be only two paths available to the world. One being the road to Eternal Life with God, which can be individually claimed through repentance by The Grace of God, or the other path that leads to the abode of the evil one, who is in Hell and reserved for Everlasting Damnation.

The scriptures are to be taught as it was truly presented to us by The Almighty God. The Blood of Jesus is to be always referred to as The Blood of Jesus Christ. It should not be in any way or form omitted because THE BLOOD IS EXACTLY WHAT MADE POSSIBLE THE HOPE OF ALL MANKIND. As the old saying goes, a spade should be called a spade.

CHAPTER 32

A GOOD GOD BUT ALSO OF DISCIPLINE AND OF JUDGEMENT - ABOUT CHRIST

Moving forward, the scriptures also recorded several events where Jesus Christ expressed His anger due to lack of discipline from the elders of the Temple. After Jesus had entered into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, He physically threw over the tables of the money changers and the seat of them that sold doves inside the place of worship. They had turned The Temple of God into a business arena. They focused more on things material than the things of God, which is rightly done in Spirit. For example, doing good, being obedient to His Commandments, spending more time in studying the scriptures, regular worship, praising God in every situation and constant prayer.

In His three years of earthly ministry, Jesus Christ was never content with the deeds of the leaders. All of His fierce criticisms were directed at the Pharisees, Sadducees, Scribes and the Publicans. He often engaged in heated verbal exchanges with them because they were hypocrites, doing things to please men but leaving undone the things of God.

To conclude, The whole point or reason for human existence leads to two places, which is either heaven or hell. All humans spirits are destined to live forever after death, but wide is the gate that leads to destruction in the kingdom of darkness and narrow is the way that leads to Everlasting Life in The Kingdom of God.

That is why God incarnated Himself into a human body in the form of Jesus Christ so to dwell among men for the sake of correcting The Error of First Man Adam. He more than exceeded what had to be done so to convince men that He is God in the flesh. And these were seen in the many signs and wonders that were performed by Him within the very short period of three years.

COMMENTARY

Making direct reference to the events After The Very First Sin Of Mankind, The Holy Bible detailed how The Lord God Almighty immediately killed an animal in the paradise garden of Eden. That was to make atonement for the error of our first parents Adam and Eve because after they broke God's Law they both attained the knowledge of good and evil. Where The Almighty God also covered them with the skin of the same animal, after they had discovered their nakedness as a result of sinning. The consequences of their error was so enormous that a living creature in the form of either a goat , sheep or a bull was slaughtered for them. THAT WAS AS IF THE ANIMAL HAD TAKEN THE IMMEDIATE PUNISHMENT which according to The Law that God Almighty gave them, was rightly due Adam and Eve.

Moreover, the animal blood sacrifices was to make a temporal atonement for the sin that had been committed. And that practice was to continue throughout the generations until a permanent solution was established. The ordinance of animal blood sacrifices were performed by the High Priests during those days. They were done with the intent that various sins could be cleansed but only on an annual basis. So they continued until The Reformation and New Testament by God Almighty Himself in a Human Flesh (Jesus Christ) having to shed His Own Blood, after He took on Him All Human Sin by allowing Himself to be crucified on the cross.

God Almighty being kind, loving and always compassionate, foretold His Salvation plan designed for the entire human race through several prophets. And that can be found in many of the books of the Old Testament right through to the last Old Testament book of Malachi. The plan was to be a PERMANENT SOLUTION for the error that occurred in the very beginning.

God Almighty The Spirit Father, in order to make sure our Salvation plan was fully completed, for a brief moment turned His face against His own Human Form (Jesus Christ), because at that time Christ had taken on Him all human sins, and The Spirit of God despises sin because He is Holy.

AND BY DOING THAT, THE MISSION WHICH STARTED AFTER THE SHAMEFUL FALL OF ADAM AND EVE BECAUSE OF SIN WAS FULLY ACCOMPLISHED. THE HOLY BIBLE ALSO TEACHES THAT WE CAN ONLY BE SAVED BY THE BLOOD OF JESUS CHRIST. This is because as a direct result of His Death and His Resurrection, all people on this earth have been Reconciled to God. Death had no more power on mankind since that faithful third day. THE CURSES OF THE SIN THAT TOOK PLACE IN THE BEGINNING HAD NO MORE STING FROM THAT VERY MOMENT WHEN THE BLOOD OF CHRIST WAS SHED ON THE CROSS. Christ made a way for all mankind to freely attain Eternal Life and to become partakers of His Everlasting Kingdom.

Since that time onwards, every individual in this world has been placed on a Critical Frontier of Just Two Paths. ONE LEADING TO THE WAY OF THE CROSS THROUGH SALVATION MADE AVAILABLE BY JESUS CHRIST, AND ETERNAL LIFE MADE AVAILABLE BY HIM, TO THOSE THAT ARE WILLING TO FREELY CLAIM THROUGH REPENTANCE, OR THE OTHER PATH WHICH LEADS TO ETERNAL DAMNATION IN THE FURNACE OF HELL.

PATH TO SALVATION

The Lord 's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed by Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts.
As we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For Thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever.
Amen!

Heavenly Father

Thy Kingdom come
Let the reign of divine truth, life and love be established in us
And rule out of us all sins
May Thy word enrich the affections of all mankind
And govern them.
Amen!

mind, soul and body as my LORD and Saviour

Old things are past away

All things have become new because I have accepted Jesus Christ with all my heart, mind, soul and strength
